

NZWG SEED & SEED ADVANCED GRANTS TERMS AND CONDITIONS

NZWG SEED & SEED ADVANCED GRANTS

To give this industry its best chance of success we need strong and new ideas. We need stories that resonate. New Zealand Writers Guild (NZWG) believe in facilitating diverse pathways for developing these stories. We need to allow writers space to find their voices. New Zealand Film Commission (NZFC) funded Seed grants are for writers only and provide unencumbered development funding for feature film scripts.

The Seed Advanced grant pathway is aimed at reducing competition between upcoming writers and more experienced writers, as well as providing new opportunities for the latter, in the Seed pathway. The advanced grants provide accomplished writers with a higher grant level and flexibility around development costs to reflect their greater experience.

SEED

For 2023 NZWG Seed Grants are offered over two rounds.

- Round One offers up to six grants of $10,000 (+ GST if applicable) each for the development of feature film scripts. Included in the total is $2,500 (+ GST if applicable) to put toward script consultation per feature film script.
- Round Two offers up to six grants of $10,000 (+ GST if applicable) each for the development of feature film scripts. Included in the total is $2,500 (+ GST if applicable) to put toward script consultation per feature film script.

SEED ADVANCED

For 2023 NZWG Seed Advanced Grants are offered over two rounds with a total of four grants of $12,500 (+ GST if applicable) each for the development of feature film scripts. Included in the total is $2,500 (+ GST if applicable) for a broad development process – possible development tools / processes can be (but are not limited to) workshops, table reads, research and multiple script consultants.

Seed & Seed Advanced grants represent an opportunity for writers to be innovative, to be brilliant, and to be excited about the chance to create something they own.

With thanks to New Zealand Film Commission for continuing to support the screenwriters of Aotearoa, through funding the NZWG Seed and Seed Advanced grants.

GRANTS AIMS AND PARAMETERS

AIMS

- Create an opportunity for writers to experiment with new ideas and to develop a strong draft of a feature film screenplay before parting with any rights or presenting the work to producers or production companies.
- Seed Advanced aims to reduce competition in the Seed pathway, between upcoming and more experienced writers.
- Seed Advanced aims to provide more experienced writers with a higher grant level and more flexibility in development.
- Provide development funding specifically for writers-only to create a feature film script.
- Find new, exciting feature film projects.
- Create a unique facet of independent script development.
- Facilitate the creation of industry-ready feature film scripts.

PARAMETERS

- These grants do not reflect in any way a purchase price for a draft. They are a contribution to the writer's own investment of time and skill in a project they retain the rights to.
- These grants are for feature film projects only.
- The writer must still own the rights within their work to apply i.e., no producer or production company is attached to the script.
- The script sample must be from the same feature film which is being applied to the Seed grant with.
- This grant is a subsidy, not a debt against the production. This means successful applicants receive $10,000 (Seed Advanced) or $7,500 (Seed) of unencumbered development funding.
- These grants are for New Zealand citizens or permanent residents only.
- An additional feedback service is available for $150 at the time of applying online. These assessments commence after announcement of the recipients.
- All assessment is via a double-blind read: the assessors will be anonymous; assessors will not know whose work they are reading – decisions will be made on the strength of ideas and writing only.
- Assessors are independent. Each assessor will be an experienced industry practitioner with strong knowledge of script development.
- NZWG staff provide administration and the NZWG Board provide oversight to ensure clear, fair, and transparent processes.
- NZWG staff do not select recipients. The Board of the NZWG do not select recipients unless they are appointed as assessors in their independent professional capacity.
- NZWG Board members are eligible to apply for any round of Seed funding and will in such cases remove themselves from any discussion of that round of the grant.

APPLYING TO SEED OR SEED ADVANCED

ASSESSMENT MATERIALS

IDENTIFYING DETAILS & PDF REQUIREMENTS

The below Assessment Materials must have all identifying details removed. Identifying details are writer(s) names, contact details and other types of personal identifiers e.g., file name, previous works, additional writers etc. Script and Treatment PDFs cannot contain pictures, links to websites, casting references or director's vision.

If any of the Assessment Materials are found to have identifying details in them, NZWG reserves the right to withdraw the application from judging.

Treatment and script must:

- Have all writer(s) identifying details removed.
- Be provided in PDF format only, Final Draft or other scriptwriting software files are not accepted.
- Be presented in industry-standard formatting – 12 pt courier, single line spacing, normal margins.

LOGLINE

To be entered in an open field in the online application portal.

The logline is a statement, in 35 words or fewer, that reflects the narrative 'hook', premise or essential dramatic dilemma inherent in the proposed film. This is not a tagline for a movie poster, but rather a one or two-line summary of the film's essential storyline.

SYNOPSIS

To be entered in an open field in the online application portal.

The synopsis is a highly condensed story outline of no more than 250 words that clearly reflects the dramatic spine of the film. It must touch on the film's tone, genre, emotional journey, and key characters, and must include the film's ending.

POTENTIAL AUDIENCE

To be entered in an open field in the online application portal.

This paragraph will answer the following questions. Who is the primary target audience? What makes this movie different from competing movies? Why should your audience spend their time and money watching this movie? This must not include reference to prior material that may identify the applicant.

TREATMENT

Attached as a PDF file.

This is the first of the two key documents on which the application will be assessed.

This should deliver an outline of the core narrative story, including a beginning, middle and an end. The treatment should also convey the emotional journey, structure, and genre, as well as something of the tone and characters.

The treatment length must be, and is strictly enforced as:

- Seed – five (5) pages – up to a maximum of 2,300 words.
- Seed Advanced – five (5) to ten (10) pages.
- All writer(s) identifying details removed.
- PDF format only – Final Draft or other scriptwriting software files are not accepted.
- No imagery or links to further information may be included.
- Presented in industry-standard formatting – 12 pt courier, single line spacing, normal margins.

SCREENWRITING SAMPLE – 10 PAGES

Attached as a PDF file.

This document is the second of the two key documents to be assessed.

Whilst the synopsis and the treatment state the promise and potential of the idea, this screenwriting sample delivers on that promise. It must show that the writer can execute this screenplay in a skilful and professional manner. This includes tone, dialogue, cinematic imagery, transitions between scenes, and all the other elements that create a filmic experience in the reader's mind.

- The screenwriting sample must be from the same feature film as in the application.
- The sample pages must include some dialogue.
- The sample pages may include non-consecutive scenes.
- 10 pages of standard script formatted sample.
- All writer(s) identifying details removed.
- PDF format only – Final Draft or other scriptwriting software files are not accepted.

ASSESSMENT

The four assessors judge the applicant's assessment criteria through a blind-read process. This means the assessors cannot see who the applicants are, and the applicants do not know who the assessors are prior to the completion of judging.

ASSESSMENT CRITERIA

Assessments are completed using only the following Assessment Materials:

- Logline
- Short synopsis
- Potential audience
- Treatment
- Screenplay sample

Eligibility Materials are not provided to, nor sighted by, the assessors. Assessors will be assessing each application on the following criteria:

1. Idea – is it compelling/engaging? Does it have an audience?
2. Craft – is the writer able to execute the screenplay on a high enough level to deliver on the promise of the idea?
3. Voice – is the writer's voice original and clear?

SELECTION OF ASSESSORS

Each assessor engaged by the NZWG will be an experienced industry professional with a proven track record for assessing scripts. Potential assessors will be selected by the Board of the NZWG, with some further suggestions from NZFC.

The Executive Director of NZWG will select four different assessors to be engaged each round, all applications will be read by a minimum of three judges. An additional, non-judging, script assessor will provide the optional Additional Feedback if purchased by applicants.

Assessors will immediately disclose any potential conflict(s) of interest and – where actively involved with the development of an application / project at the time of assessment – will subsequently remove themselves from any discussion, decision or selection relating to the application(s) in question.

The assessor's details will be made public at the time of the announcement of the grant recipients.

ASSESSMENT PROCESS AND FEEDBACK

- To be considered for a grant, an application score must make it into the Top 20 or Top 10 or are a judge's "wildcard".
- Score is marked in three criteria – Idea, Craft and Voice – from each of the assessors.
- The score is calculated from the total assessors' marks for each of the three criteria. 1-3 – 3 being the highest in Seed and between 1-5 – 5 being the highest in Seed Advanced in each criterion.
- An adjudication session will be held to select the successful grant application(s).
- The assessors are under no obligation to award grants.
- Writers of unsuccessful applications will receive an email to state this. No further correspondence with the assessors will be entered into.

- Additional Feedback (optional) service is available at time of applying - $150 + GST. A different assessor reviews the application and gives 1 page of detailed notes. These assessments commence after the grant recipients are announced.
